

The Cape Girardeau is due down Tuesday.

The steamer Rees Lee is due down Wednesday.

A. H. Sherwood and wife of Chicago, were Cape visitors Monday.

S. P. Eldron of Whitewater paid the Cape a business visit Monday.

W. H. Wills, of Patton, was in the Cape on insurance business Monday.

John Harter of Ste. Genevieve paid the Cape a business visit Monday.

Charles Reed of Fruitland paid the Cape a visit Monday.

J. D. Rogers, a real estate man of Benton, spent Monday in the Cape.

R. Cannon and daughter of Benton spent Monday in the Cape on a shopping trip.

W. L. Mabrey of Jackson spent Monday in the Cape in the transaction of business.

C. C. O'Neal of Advance was transacting some business in the Cape Monday.

H. G. Seitz, a popular citizen of Puxico, was in the Cape Monday looking after business affairs.

Charles R. Mills of Sikeston, spent Monday in the Cape on a business trip.

W. H. Stubblefield left Monday for Poplar Bluff where he has some business matters to look after.

W. Kay of Chicago, now employed in the powder mills at Payville, is in the Cape on a business trip.

Messrs. George and R. S. Houck of Charleston, Pa., were in the Cape on business.

R. B. Myers a well known and prominent citizen of Advance, was in the Cape on business Monday.

Frank Skiles a well known farmer of McClure, Ill., was in the Cape Monday doing some trading.

J. H. Ansell of Farnfeldt, spent Monday in the Cape transacting some business.

Leonard Schmitt of New Hamburg was in the Cape Monday on a business trip.

P. Z. Goss of Deray was in the Cape Monday looking after a real estate deal.

Rev. Will G. Thompson of Fruitland passed through the Cape Monday on his way to Mountain View.

John Hester of St. Genevieve came down to the Cape to look after some business matters Tuesday.

Mrs. J. T. McClure, of McClure, Ill., was in the Cape Tuesday visiting with relatives and friends, and doing some shopping.

D. B. Seibert and John A. Hope of St. Louis are in the Cape in the transaction of some business pertaining to the Veneering plant.

Charles Burns of Sikeston, brother of H. C. Burns of the Aqueduct hotel, is in the Cape this week visiting with his brother.

A. D. Brown, the school supply man who has been in the Cape for several days, returned to his home in Edgar, Neb., Monday.

The steamer St. Louis will leave St. Louis Tuesday evening on her first trip for the season and will reach the Cape sometime Wednesday.

The engine on freight train No. 832 stripped her side rods at Neelys Landing Monday night and delayed passenger train No. 805 for several hours.

Joe Bolen and son, prominent and progressive farmers of Fale, Ill., were in the Cape Monday disposing of farm products and buying spring seed for planting.

Officer Charles Stone is devoting much of his time to the useful purpose of ridding the town of strays, with which the court yard and many other public places have abounded before he started his crusade.

A. L. Christenberry of Zalma, who was formerly proprietor of the Little Gem Restaurant of this city has returned to the Cape with a view of locating and entering into the hotel or restaurant business.

Mr. McSweeney of Springfield, Mo., an expert air brake and steam gauge man in the employ of the Frisco, was in the Cape Monday in attendance upon his duties with the railroad company.

W. D. Marshall of Sikeston spent Sunday in the Cape.

Mrs. J. M. Johnson of Biggers, Ark., spent Sunday in the Cape.

John Sackman went to Hayti Monday to look over his farm.

Frank White, of White Book fame, left for Oran Monday afternoon.

J. R. Ferrill of Illinois spent Sunday in the Cape.

C. Drinkwater and sister of Charleston spent Sunday in the Cape.

Wm. Thomason and wife of Dexter spent Sunday in the Cape.

John A. Hope of St. Louis came to the Cape Monday on legal business.

Malvern Hicks has secured employment as porter at the saloon of P. H. Hook.

L. B. Garner, a piano tuner of Cincinnati, is in the Cape this week working at his profession.

J. M. Ingram of Jackson, Tenn., is in the Cape looking after a business location in this city.

O. K. Steele of St. Marys was a Cape visitor Sunday and returned to his home Monday morning.

W. A. Sullinger, a well known and prominent citizen of Benton, Mo., paid the Cape a business visit Saturday.

J. B. Norrid, a traveling salesman of Chicago, was in the Cape Saturday looking after the needs of his patrons.

J. L. Daniel of Caruthersville spent Saturday in the Cape on a business trip.

Steamer Rees Lee is due in the Cape on her northward journey sometime Monday.

Joseph Caldwell, prominent citizen and attorney of Marble Hill is in the Cape on legal business.

Mr. Arnold the quarryman of Neelys, came down Monday on a short business trip.

Charles McCullough and Ruben Barnes of Louisville, Ky., are in the Cape with a view of locating in business.

E. M. Johnson, a liquor salesman of Peoria, Ill., is in the Cape this week looking after the needs of his customers.

Mrs. John Gold of Chaffee returned to the Cape Saturday where she is having her teeth treated by one of our local dentists.

A. D. Brown of Edgar, Neb., dealer in school supplies, is stopping in the Cape looking after interests in his line.

L. J. Pott spent Sunday with his family, and returned to Pascola Monday, where he has business interests.

Mrs. Risty was stricken with appendicitis Saturday and is in a very serious condition at her home on Bloomfield street.

B. D. Baldwin of St. Louis representing a wholesale house of that city, is in the Cape looking after the interests of his patrons.

Mrs. R. D. Williams and children of Centralia, Ill., passed through the Cape Sunday on their way to visit Mrs. Williams' sister at Sedgewickville.

"When the Earth Trembled," at the Princess Wednesday night. Matinee in the afternoon for the benefit of the Lroimer school.

The "Wolf" will be presented at the opera house tonight, and the company comes highly recommended, and the performance will not doubt be highly entertaining.

The steamer Cape Girardeau, had a big load for the North, and left for the Cape Sunday morning at about 3:30. Aside from having a big cargo of general freight, she loaded about 200 head of stock.

Alex Wilson, a prominent merchant of Burfordville, with Pete Homes, and little daughter, came down to the Cape Tuesday to meet T. A. Frish whom they expect on the steamer Cape Girardeau. Mr. Frish is moving to Burfordville.

The motorcycle with a third wheel attachment is a new advent in the city, and is attracting considerable attention and many favorable comments is passed concerning it. The Tribune is advised that Price Williams and Henry Wichterich are contemplating purchase of one of these new novel, and useful devices, which are being displayed by the local auto agents of this city.

L. J. Chapin of Springfield, was in the Cape on business Tuesday.

Logan Hines of Jackson was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

E. L. Bond of Allenville was in the Cape on business Tuesday.

W. F. Wilson of Allenville had business in the Cape Tuesday.

Chas. Lane of Reynoldsville, Ill., had business in the Cape Tuesday.

Miss Esther Rose has been quite seriously ill for several days.

Tom Edison and wife of Hamburg, were in the Cape on a shopping trip Tuesday.

R. F. Cox, a prominent citizen of Allenville, has some business to look after in the Cape this week.

John Cowell of Reynoldsville, Ill., spent Tuesday in the Cape on a business trip.

The steamer Rees Lee went up at 1:30 Monday with a good cargo.

C. H. Andrews the popular salesman from Poplar Bluff, spent Saturday and Sunday in the Cape meeting his customers and greeting his many friends.

T. F. Sullivan, an expert shoe worker of Boston, Mass., has come to the Cape to enter the employ of the Roberts, Johnson & Rand factory at this place.

W. C. Siemers and son, prominent citizens and popular and prosperous farmers of Gordonville, spent Saturday in the Cape delivering produce and purchasing supplies.

I. J. and J. J. Andrews of Jackson, Tenn., have come to the Cape with a view of entering the restaurant and cafe business in this city. It is said that they have arranged to open the Riverview cafe.

Dick Tatum, a prominent business man of Kennett, is in the Cape visiting friends and relatives. Dick is well and favorably known in the Cape, having spent several years in the Normal school in this city.

Clem Hoeller who has been in St. Louis for two weeks in care of the physicians, returned Monday for a short visit with his family. He expects to go back to St. Louis in a short time for the purpose of undergoing an operation.

Floyd Stark, W. A. Ligon, and M. P. Ligon and wife of Puxico, were Cape visitors Sunday, leaving Monday morning for a point north of here where they have accepted employment on the bridge construction of the C. G. & N.

Louis Kaiser, book-keeper for the Farmers Supply Dry Goods and Clothing has resigned his position there and left Monday afternoon for Cape Girardeau where he will take up the same work for the Black Diamond Coal Company.—Sikeston Standard.

An ice wagon belonging to the Blue Ribbon Company suffered a breakdown Monday morning at the corner of Spanish and Independence streets, caused by an axle breaking when going over an uneven place in the road. The attendants, Rogers and Freeman, were considerably shaken up, but suffered no injuries.

The new branch bakery of C. Wielputz, soon to be opened on Main street near the United States Express Co. offices, promises to be something highly attractive and especially adapted to the satisfaction of the needs and wants of downtown customers. In addition to carrying a full line of baker's goods, a complete and attractive confectionery will be operated and coffee and other refreshments will be served.

E. M. Carter, business manager of the Cape Girardeau Athletic Meet, spent a few hours in Sikeston Tuesday and was "choked full" of the coming meet. He says it will be bigger and better this spring than ever before and that he thinks the honors of the event will be more divided than it has ever been heretofore. Perryville, Flat River, Kennett, Poplar Bluff, and many other towns will feature this year while the St. Louis schools are again desiring entrance. The towns of the northern end will enter more athletic events this spring than ever. Heretofore they have been entering the essay contest, declamatory, etc., and giving less attention to athletics, but this spring they promise well in all fields. More than twenty of our boys have handed in their names for track work and our material looks good. We also have some splendid material in the Freshman class to help us in sprinting and jumping. We are expecting better results from the field work this spring than last.—Sikeston Standard.

Charles F. Dettmer of St. Louis had business in the Cape Tuesday.

There was a meeting of the Trades Council Tuesday night.

James A. Finch of Farnfeldt, was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

J. A. Lawrence of Farmington was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

S. J. Kimball of Dexter was in the Cape on a business trip Tuesday.

L. G. Heiserer, a prominent citizen of Benton, spent Tuesday in the Cape.

Elda Richter and Martin Richter of New Wells, were in the Cape on a shopping trip Tuesday.

E. B. Ryan of Doniphan had some business matters to attend to in the Cape Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Green of Fruitland, was in the Cape on a shopping trip Tuesday.

A. L. Christenberg, a timberman from Zalma, was in the Cape on a business trip Tuesday.

G. A. Garner of Sikeston came to the Cape Tuesday for a short visit with relatives in this city.

M. W. Gladish, a merchant from Burfordville, spent Tuesday in the Cape in the transaction of business.

The Ground Hog is the swiftest saloon in town, having hired and fired two porters in the last day and a half.—adv.

Albert M. Spradling of Jackson was in the Cape Tuesday where he had some business in the court of Judge Willer.

Jimmy Gill, a prominent business man of Farnfeldt spent a few hours in the Cape on a hurried business mission Tuesday.

Peter McCabe of St. Louis came to the Cape recently to accept employment in the shoe factory at this place.

Dr. O. S. Harrison of Kennett passed through the Cape Tuesday night from Bloomfield to his home. He spent several hours in the city.

G. R. Turner, a stockman from Bloomfield stopped over at the Terminal Tuesday night, on his way to St. Louis, where he has shipped a big consignment of fat cattle.

Mrs. George Miller and Mr. Dolly Hooper of this city, left Wednesday afternoon for Clarkton where they have been called on account of the illness of their brother, N. G. Hopper.

Charles Taylor and wife, and Mrs. Ella Kinder, a sister of Mrs. Taylor, came to the Cape from Puxico, Tuesday night. Mr. Taylor has secured employment in this city and will make his home here in the future.

James Cronin of Protageville and Harry Robison of Kinder passed through the Cape Wednesday with a carload of stock which Mr. Robison will winter on Cronin's farm at Kinder.

Conductor W. C. Christopher has returned from his home in St. Louis where he has been laid up with the mumps for some time. He is entirely recovered and will resume his run on the Campbell local.

It is rumored that Big Ed Regenhart intends to move back to the Cape for the purpose of entering the campaign as a candidate for mayor from this district, and that Alvin Naeter will probably oppose him for the nomination.

A meeting of the Southern Missouri Savings and Loan was held Tuesday night in the office of Secretary George E. Chappell. There was a full attendance, and books making a number of loans, the books were changed so as to have the meeting on the first Tuesday of each month.

KAISER WILLIAM IS IN VENICE

Italian King and Minister of Foreign Affairs Go There to Meet Emperor.

(WNU News Service.) Venice, Italy, March 25.—Emperor William arrived here from Germany and was officially received by the authorities and was cordially greeted by a large crowd. His majesty at once went on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern.

King Victor Emanuel will come here to meet the emperor. He is to be accompanied by the Marquis di San Giuliano, minister of foreign affairs.

Women Voters Get Gum. Topeka, Kan., March 25.—W. H. Kemper, election commissioner, is in accordance with his promise, is giving each woman who registers as a voter in the city a package of chewing gum.

Normal Notes

The Juniors and Seniors held a class meeting Wednesday to discuss things pertaining to the new school Annual.

The Sophomores held a meeting Wednesday during chapel hour to make final arrangements for the candy pulling party which they will have next Monday evening at Science hall.

The "Messiah" rehearsal Tuesday evening at the Normal was the largest in attendance so far. If you sing be sure and be present next Tuesday, you will enjoy it and you will be greatly benefited also.

The school annual, "The Sagamore" is nearing completion, and in a few weeks will be in print and ready for issuing. The staff of the Sagamore deserves commendation in the way they have carried on the work of getting together the material for the book. Every citizen of Cape Girardeau who is interested in the Normal should make arrangements for procuring one of these books.

Quite a few new students are entering the Normal today. This term is going to break a record for new students.

The Normal band has thirty pieces and is the best it has been for some time. You had better hear the concert in the Normal auditorium next Saturday morning at 10:05.

The rehearsal for the "Messiah" will be held as usual tonight in Sorosis hall at the Normal. Miss Mable Flint, director, requests all who wish to sing, to be present.

The baseball team is getting down to actual practice. There is some good material and it is developing fine. Another feature this spring will be the school league that Dr. Cobb intends to organize among the students of the Normal. They will organize and elect captains Wednesday during chapel hour. There will also be a handicap Field Meet. The students will also take part in the meet. It is being discussed whether or not to let the town boys enter in the meet. It will be decided within the next two or three days, and when it is, it will be announced in this paper.

The Y. M. C. A. quartet sang at the Methodist services at the Normal last night. The quartet is progressing nicely, due to the untiring efforts of J. M. Robertson, who organized it and keeps it going.

Fred V. Moore left for his home at Festus, Mo., Saturday. He has been ill for the most part of this term and is going home to rest.

The Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. campaign ended Saturday evening and was a great success in every particular.

The Normal Band will give a concert in the Normal auditorium next Saturday morning at 10:05. You are invited.

ROOSEVELT AGAIN UNHARMED

Message From Fiala Says Ex-President Was Not in River Mishap in Brazil.

(WNU News Service.) New York, March 25.—The American prints the following dispatch from Anthony Fiala under a Santarem, Brazil, date line:

"I have received a wire from Col. Roosevelt from Bonitacao, Mato Grosso province, reporting all in good health. He has been exploring the Parana river (River of Doubt) and expects to reach Manaus early in April."

"I left Bonitacao as part of the expedition plans for the exploration of the Parana river. I was accompanied by a Brazilian cavalry lieutenant and seven men, all three canoeists. We left the Parana with all our equipment and food in the Rapids of the Devil."

"We had a thrilling escape with the flood of the Bonitacao, five men and myself, and continued the descent with short supplies along the Parana, passing on the Trepas river. We ran 50 or more rapids, including Anaprepas and Trepas, and catching fish for food."

"I expect to meet Roosevelt at Manaus."

Editor Sues Rock Island Mayor.

Rock Island, Ill., March 25.—Mayor H. M. Schriver and six members of the police force have been made defendants in a suit for $100,000 damages by John Looney, former publisher of the Weekly News. Looney brought the suit for injuries he claims to have received when beaten in the city hall by Schriver, two years ago.

Colonel to Get Revolver. Milwaukee, March 25.—Col. Roosevelt will be given the revolver with which John Schrank attempted to kill him, together with five unused bullets.

Bob Moore spent Sunday with relatives and friends.

Henry Puls purchased a five-passenger Overland Saturday.

Miss Emogene Vinyard is reported to have the mumps.

Mrs. Jane Reid and daughter, went to Fruitland to spend Saturday and Sunday with relatives.

Clarence Taylor was out from the Cape to spend Sunday with his parents.

Miss Millie Groshman who is attending the Normal at the Cape came home Saturday to visit her parents.

Miss Stella Reid returned to the Cape Sunday after spending a week with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeikel Mabrey went to the Cape to spend Sunday with his sister.

Arthur Sachse left for Fredericktown Sunday to accompany his wife home.

B. F. Sunderman and wife spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Milde, Sunday.

John Henry from Oak Ridge was in Jackson on business Saturday and was the guest of Mrs. Morton Wagner, his sister.

Mrs. John Mabrey and Guy Deck were called to Bell City Saturday on account of the illness of their mother who is seriously sick with pneumonia.

About thirty-five friends of Mr. John Cracraft gathered at his home Saturday evening. The affair was a thoroughly enjoyable one to all present. The young folks enjoyed games during the evening, after which a most refreshing luncheon was served.

Percy Domeyer left for Jackson, Tenn., Tuesday on business.

Work has begun on the new Baptist parsonage, the contractor being J. F. Slack.

The young people of the Evangelical church have begun preparations for their Easter services. There are to be several confirmed.

The Baptist ladies will have an all day quilting Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Birhead of St. Louis is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Blucher Spelling.

Mrs. Kate Schmucke is visiting her sister and brother, Anna and John Spalding of the Cape this week.

Joe Schmucke went to Oran on business Monday and returned Tuesday evening.

Roy Taylor who was operated on about a week ago at the Jewish hospital is getting along nicely and will soon be able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sachse returned from Fredericktown Tuesday.

Contractor Herman Roloff has begun to build a seven room dwelling on the old Turner lot lately purchased by Kent-Wilson and Henry Puls.

Adam Hoffman Sr., dies at the home of his son, Robert Hoffman, at five o'clock Wednesday morning, March 25. A more extended notice will be published in a later issue of the Tribune and is noted when the funeral will be held.

Monday morning at eleven o'clock Mrs. Nora Sawyer of Jackson and Mrs. Mary Hazeltine of Loganport, Ind., were married at the Lakes home on the Chesapeake Ferry road by Rev. C. E. Hagan. Mr. and Mrs. Hazeltine left for Loganport Monday afternoon where they will make their future home.

Miss Rose Byrd of San Antonio, Texas, is in Jackson visiting relatives.

Charles Smith, Will Wenzel and the German brothers of Tulsa, were in the Cape on business Monday.

Miss Virginia Labrot returned to her home in Fredericktown Monday.

Wilson Howard left Saturday for Senath, Mo., to accompany his wife home where she has been for the past three months.

Mrs. Ollie Astholz and children of the Cape are visiting her parents.

Guy Deck returned home from Belle City Monday where he had been called on account of the serious illness of his mother, and he reports there is no change in her condition.